

Announcing the Boys and Girls Basketball Video Skills Showcase

Saturday, October 22, 2011 at the David Posnack Jewish Community Center is an ideal opportunity to come and find out.

Message to high school coaches:

According to NCAA rules, high school coaches can talk to the college coaches while players are showcasing their talents in front of the college coaches.

College coaches:

All Division II and III in the area are being personally invited to come and attend this event, while all Florida high school coaches are being contacted to forward this important information to their high school and AAU teams.

Are you wondering if you can play Division II or III basketball?
