

3rd Annual - Northeast Football Showcase 2012
May 5th at New London HS and May 12th at Sage Park, Berlin, CT

The NFS 2012 event provides players with the ability to be seen by college coaches while at the same time being filmed. Videos will be provided online to each participant within a couple of weeks of the event, after editing is completed by CSA staff. Players can send the video link to any schools they are interested in. Additionally, each coach will receive your academic and athletic profile and contact info. You will automatically be registered in the NoticeME! online player profile database for college coaches to see your information.

This is an extensive skills and drills video showcase. We will have you execute all of the individual skills and some team skills. There will be no games just skills footage. This is a chance to get your video done and distribute to the colleges you are interested in, plus play in front of college coaches.

The Northeast Football Showcase (NFS) is brought to you by the Nutmeg State Games and College Showcases America.
